one Fabric E strip
one Fabric F strip
one Fabric G strip

Step 6: Cut each strip set into four 8-1/2" squares, for a total of twenty-four squares.

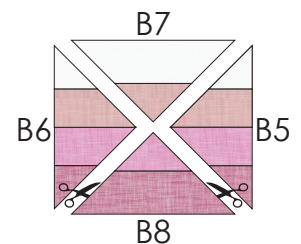

Step 7: With the Fabric G strip on the bottom edge, cut eight squares from lower left to upper right. The portion on the right will now be called B1. The portion on the left will now be called B2. Discard four B2 units.

Step 8: With the Fabric G strip on the bottom edge, cut eight squares from lower right to upper left. The portion on the right will now be called B4. The portion on the left will now be called B3. Discard four B4 units.

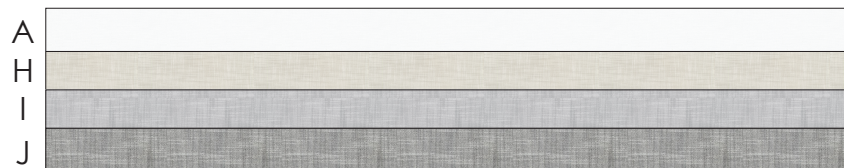

Step 9: With the Fabric G strip on the bottom edge, cut eight squares from corner to corner to create four triangles. The portion on the right will now be called B5. The portion on the left will now be called B6. The portion on the top will now be called B7. Discard the portion on the bottom.

Assemble the C Block Units

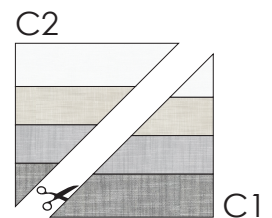

Step 10: Gather:
one Fabric A strip
one Fabric H strip
one Fabric I strip
one Fabric J strip

Sew together in that order to form a strip set. Repeat to make a total of four C strip sets. Press the seams to one side.

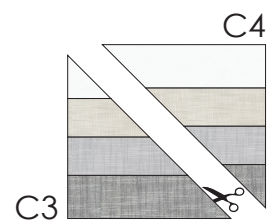

Step 11: Cut each strip set into four 8-1/2" squares, for a total of sixteen squares.

Step 12: With the Fabric J strip on the bottom edge, cut eight squares from lower left to upper right. The portion on the right will now be called C1. The portion on the left will now be called C2.

Step 13: With the Fabric J strip on the bottom edge, cut eight squares from lower right to upper left. The portion on the right will now be called C4. The portion on the left will now be called C3.

Assemble the Quilt

Step 14: Arrange the A, B and C triangle units to form eight columns, noting the placement and orientation shown in the Quilt Assembly Diagram.

Step 15: Sew each column together, pressing seams to one side. Take extra care to handle the bias edges lightly to prevent stretching. Each column should measure approximately 62-3/4" long.

Step 16: Sew the 1-1/2" Fabric A sashing and strips together, end-to-end. Measure the length of the columns through the center to find the average length. Cut nine sashing strips to this length.

Step 17: Sew the pieced columns and the sashing strips together, placing a sashing strip between each column and on the left and right edges of the quilt. Tip: Pin at the ends, middle and at several points in between and sew with the pieced column on the bottom as you sew to prevent the pieced column from stretching or warping.

Step 18: Measure the width of the quilt through the center. Cut two top/bottom border strips to this length. Sew the borders to the top/bottom of the quilt center. Press toward the border.

Your quilt top is complete! Baste, quilt, bind and enjoy!
